MENSAJE DEL DIACONO

¿Y quién es mi prójimo-----? La parábola del buen samaritano nos resume que "el que practicó la misericordia con él" fue el que se portó como prójimo del que cayó en manos de los bandidos. No tenemos que ir tan lejos para encontrar nuestros prójimos.
Nuestros familiares, esposa, esposo, hijos, padres, hermanos, tíos, etc. son nuestros prójimos mas cercanos. Debémos primero practicar misericordia con ellos. Al hacer esto ya habremos ganado entrada al cielo. Si acostum-bramos ser misericordiosos con nuestros familiares también los seremos con los demás. No olvidemos el consejo de Jesús al final de esta parábola: "¡anda haz tú lo mismo!" ¡Dios les bendiga!

Diácono Silverio Rubio

DID YOU KNOW

Are you aware that we will soon be hearing new words to familiar prayers at Mass? The Mass isn't changing but this English translation will be closer to the original Latin texts and will give deeper meaning to the celebration. There is a pamphlet series available to you in the back of our church. Please begin to make yourselves familiar with the new words so that you will be better prepared to participate in Mass when the changes are implemented.

MINISTRY FOR THE SICK

meals for the sick & hospitalized.

DON BOSCO AMONG US

In a tradition of pilgrimage, the relics of St. John Bosco are being carried into towns and villages, neighborhoods and centers where the Gospel is announced among the young and poor today. This pilgrim journey through 130 nations began on January 2009, the 150th Anniversary of the founding of the Salesian Congregation. It prepares us for the 2010 celebration on the 200th Anniversary of Don Bosco's birth near Turin, Italy on August 16, 1815.

On this pilgrimage through the United States the two closest areas are New Orleans and Belle Glade. Anyone wishing to attend and plan: the schedule:

REFLECTION

To be a Christian is to be a neighbor. To be a neighbor is to show mercy. The parable of the good Samaritan reveals that we are neighbors not by nearness or by race or by profession. We only become neighbors when we act with compassion. This Gospel is a call to examine our consciences. Are we neighbors, in this Gospel sense of the word, to those who are closest to us? Do we act with love and compassion? And what about when we are hurting - do we accept love from those we consider outsiders - from the Samaritans in our communities?

CATHOLIC ENGAGED ENCOUNTER

Weekends are divided into three main discussions: Communication, Marriage, and Sacrament.

August 13-15 -

September 10-12

October 22-24
